The Augusta-Fort Gordon Chapter of the Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association (AFCEA) is pleased to host the Third Annual AFCEA Fort Gordon Industry Day. This event brings industry representatives together with those military individuals closest to the communications challenges and issues facing soldiers in the field, leaders responsible for developing network capability requirements to support the warfighters, leaders developing and operating the Army Network infrastructure, and those responsible for evaluating solutions to those requirements in Army Network experiments.

Registration is $150 on or before September 1; $190 after September 1.

AFCEA 2011 Fort Gordon Industry Day is a full day on Thursday September 8 and includes the following speakers:

MG Alan Lynn, Commanding General, Signal Center of Excellence and Fort Gordon

BG LaWarren Patterson, Commanding General, 7TH Signal Command (Theater)

Mr. Alan Resnick, SES, TRADOC ARCIC Director of Assessments, Architecture, and Mission Command

Mr. William Lasher, SES, U.S. Army Forces Command G-6

Panels on September 8th will address some of the most pressing issues facing today's Army communicators. Industry Day will include a panel of Noncommissioned Officers discussing their recent in-theater Network experiences; a panel of Senior Army leaders and experts will tackle Army Network Operations and Cyber Challenges; a panel of Leaders from the Signal Center of Excellence Capability Development and Integration Directorate (CDID) will unpack Network Capability Gaps, Requirements and the Agile Process; and experts from the CDID Experimentation Division will discuss Cellular and Wireless Network Integration Initiatives. After the conference sessions, the Chapter is hosting an Evening Reception in the Exhibit Hall for attendees, panel members and leaders from Fort Gordon.

Arrive early on Wednesday, September 7, and join us for a Golf Social at historic Forest Hills Golf Course. Golfers will be provided with lunch, range balls, greens fees and cart, and will be eligible for prizes. Tee off is 1:00pm; fee is $60.
